Dr. Rossi Joins Concord Office of Commonwealth Hematology-Oncology

Concord, Mass.—Humberto A. Rossi, M.D. has joined the Concord office of Commonwealth Hematology-Oncology PC (CHO) as a medical oncologist. CHO is the largest community-based private cancer care group in New England. Dr. Rossi’s hospital appointment will be Emerson Hospital in Concord, Mass.

Prior to joining CHO, Dr. Rossi served as the Director of the Oncology Fellowship Program at the University of Massachusetts Medical School. He also served on staff at UMass Memorial Health Care in Worcester, Mass.; as a fellow at the University of Massachusetts Medical School in Worcester and a Resident and an Intern in Internal Medicine at Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in Baltimore, Maryland. Dr. Rossi received an M.D. and an A.B. from Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island.

Dr. Rossi is a member of the American Medical Association, the American Society of Clinical Oncologists, and the American Society of Hematology.

Commonwealth Hematology-Oncology has offices and clinical sites throughout Massachusetts and Southern New Hampshire. Commonwealth Hematology-Oncology is known for its leadership in community-based cancer care. It was the first group practice in the state to develop treatment guidelines for specific cancers and the first group practice in the area to develop a computerized software program for chemotherapy ordering. For more information, visit CHO’s web site at www.chomed.com.
