DR. TISDALE JOINS WEYMOUTH OFFICE OF COMMONWEALTH HEMATOLOGY-ONCOLOGY

Weymouth, Mass.—Douglas “Gus” Tisdale, M.D., a local resident, recently joined Michael J. Anderson, MD, James R. Everett, MD and Carol T. Mei, MD in the practice of medical oncology and hematology, at the Weymouth office of Commonwealth Hematology-Oncology PC (CHO).

Prior to joining CHO, Dr. Tisdale was a Hematology–Oncology Fellow at Boston University Medical Center in Boston, and an Internal Medicine Resident at St. Elizabeth’s Medical Center in Boston. In addition, he has served on the medical oncology staff at Jordan Hospital in Plymouth, Mass.; as a Family Practitioner in both Nelson, New Zealand, and on Vancouver Island, British Columbia, Canada; as a Senior House Surgeon at Nelson Public Hospital in Nelson, New Zealand; a Junior House Surgeon at Thames Hospital in Thames, New Zealand; and as a Junior House Surgeon at North Shore Hospital in Auckland, New Zealand. Dr. Tisdale received an M.D. from the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, Canada.

Dr. Tisdale is a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society, the American Medical Association, the American Society of Clinical Oncology, and the American Society of Hematology.

Commonwealth Hematology-Oncology is based in Quincy, Mass., and has offices and clinical sites throughout Massachusetts and Southern New Hampshire. Commonwealth Hematology-Oncology is known for its leadership in community-based cancer care. It was the first group practice in the state to develop treatment guidelines for specific cancers and the first group practice in the area to develop a computerized software program for chemotherapy ordering. For more information, visit CHO’s web site at www.chomed.com.
